1. Information
2. Situation of international students
3. Office hours
4. Doctoral student mentoring program
5. Questionnaire
6. Other matters

1st Agenda item

Edina Beáta Makszim informs those present that EHÖK and EDÖK will be meeting with Balázs Hankó on Monday (09.03.2026). Edina Beáta Makszim will not be able to attend the event, so she would like to delegate someone from the assembly. Zsófia Péntek accepts the task.

Edina Beáta Makszim informs the assembly about the recruitment of the EDÖK presidential representative responsible for communication and participation.

2nd Agenda item

Edina Beáta Makszim informs the delegates' meeting that the EDÖK Presidency has appointed Emmanuel Owusu-Acheampong as the presidential representative responsible for international integration.

Yan Xirui gives a brief report on the recent developments, WhatsApp group communication.

3rd Agenda item

Edina Beáta Makszim asks the delegates to report on their experiences with the office hours so far.

Dorottya Erdős suggests that the information about the office hours be sent out again to the students in the newsletter. The delegates' meeting discusses the canceled office hours. Based on their agreement, they inform the faculty management and students of the dates of the expected cancellations.

Makszim Edina Beáta informs the delegates' meeting that she will not be able to hold office hours on March 18, so she asks the delegates' meeting to replace her on that day. As there is no one to replace her, this event will not take place.

4th Agenda item

Edina Beáta Makszim informs the delegates' meeting that the NDI DIT members have asked the Student Council to revive the Doctoral Student Mentoring Program.

Dorottya Erdős proposes that the delegates' meeting ask the supervisors to inform the students about the launch of the Mentoring Program. In addition, the opportunity could also be advertised in a newsletter.

Zsófia Péntek raises the need for this in the PDI.

Dorottya Erdős proposes preparing a mentor handbook and organizing periodic meetings for mentors. She proposes that the goal should not be to revive the program, but to create a new one.

Edina Makszim proposes extending the program to international students.

Zsófia Péntek suggests forming foreign and Hungarian mentor pairs so that mentors can support each other. She also reports on her own experiences with the mentor program.

Dorottya Erdős suggests creating a shared document where the assembly can brainstorm ideas and build mentor recruitment.

5th Agenda item

Edina Beáta Makszim informs the delegates' meeting about the proposals made during the evaluation of the questionnaire.

Dorottya Erdős presents the proposals to the delegates' meeting.

Based on the proposals, Edina Beáta Makszim asks the delegates' meeting for its support in dissolving the Teams group. The delegates' meeting agrees to terminate the Teams group.

Based on the proposals, Edina Beáta Makszim asks the delegates' meeting for support in organizing community programs. Based on her suggestion, the first such program could be an informative discussion about the Complex Exam during the last week of the semester. Students who have already taken the complex exam, students who have already kept minutes of the complex exam, and program leaders would be invited to this discussion.

The assembly agrees on a date. Edina Makszim undertakes to take further action in relation to the program.

6th Agenda item

Edina Beáta Makszim informs the delegates' meeting that she has consulted with the dean about the joint meeting, who has asked them to suggest dates.

Yan Xirui proposes that there be another consultation before the meeting with the dean.

Makszim Edina Beáta closes the meeting of the ELTE PPK DÖK delegate assembly at 9:00 p.m.
